How Far You've Come

Air Date: September 7, 2017

Ron: On any journey, part of gauging your progress is knowing how far you have to go and knowing how far you've come.

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: Those who study productivity and team efficiency will tell you that you need to mark your progress so you know what you've accomplished. I think parenting is a little like that. It's easy to see the qualities your child is missing and what you're working on with them, but sometimes we fail to notice how far they've come.

Stepfamilies sometimes feel like a never-ending work in progress and that can be discouraging. But, hey, take a minute and remember what it was like in the beginning. Get some perspective on how far you've come and celebrate God's provision so far and know that God is with you, with all that still lies ahead. For FamilyLife Blended, I'm Ron Deal.
