Parenting: No Regrets

Air Date: September 11, 2017

Ron: If your parenting came to an end today, would you have any regrets?

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's FamilyLife's Ron Deal.

Ron: Nan and I have three sons. A few years ago our middle son, Connor, died of an illness at the age of 12. I certainly wasn't finished parenting him, but I don't have any regrets about the time that we had together. We went fishing. We laughed together. We traveled together. We celebrated his talents and his gifts and urged him to use them for others. We talked about sexuality and other awkward subjects and, we shared the gospel with him. And, I'm so glad we did because eternity came sooner than we thought.

Parents, we can't count on tomorrow. Love them and parent them today. No regrets. For FamilyLife Blended, I'm Ron Deal.
