Finding Consensus

Air Date: May 15, 2018

Ron: What do you do when stuck between your spouse and your children?

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: This can happen in all families, but blended families are particularly susceptible to this dynamic. Linda wisely said, "If there's some disagreement between me and my husband, we discuss it without the kids present and come to a consensus."

You see, this couple values their unity so much they're willing to manage how they negotiate a decision. Kids are not allowed in the discussion. They talk until they come to a consensus. Then they move forward. If the child is standing there, it changes everything. Sometimes finding agreement is difficult enough. So, manage the process so the process doesn't manage you. For FamilyLife Blended, I'm Ron Deal.
