Making the Hard Choices for Our Kids

Air Date: June 14, 2018

Ron: Sometimes, we parents have to give up what we really, really want in order to give our children what they really, really need.

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: I heard recently about a blended family couple applying for a job with a non-profit ministry. They were highly qualified and eager to serve the Lord. But there was one complication. Taking the job would mean moving to another city far away from his ex-wife and his nine-year-old son. Joining the ministry they really loved would take dad away.

To their credit, the couple decided not to make the move. Were they giving up a good opportunity? Sure. But the best ministry they could be involved in was remaining close to his son so he could raise him to be a man. For FamilyLife Blended I'm Ron Deal.
