September 11—Tragedy & Hope

Air Date: September 11, 2018

Ron: Tragedy and hope—what a strange combination.

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: Sheri Ladley lost her husband, James, on September 11, 2001. Her two children lost their father. Their family lost their joy. The 9/11 attacks were tragic for all Americans, but for Sheri and her kids, it was deeply tragic. Since that day our country has rebuilt some of what it has lost. Sheri's family has, too. She remarried a few years later and had a daughter whose middle name is Hope.

This year on 9/11 let's all pause and remember the people we lost and the tragedy that changed everything. And let's cling to hope and to the One who heals. For FamilyLife Blended I'm Ron Deal.
