To Know or To Take

Air Date: September 13, 2018

Ron: “To know” or “to take.”

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here’s Ron Deal.

Ron: In Psalm 139 David declares: “O Lord, you have searched me and known me.” The Hebrew word for known, yada, is a very intimate word. It’s not that God knows about me. He knows me personally. And he wants to be known by me, creating a close, intimate relationship.

You know, the same word is used for sexuality. It’s an intimate revealing form of communication. Now contrast that to how the world talks about sex. It’s what I can take. Not what I can give or share but what I can take. Intimate communication or selfish exploitation? It’s up to you. For FamilyLife Blended I’m Ron Deal.
