National Stepfamily Day

Air Date: September 14, 2018

Ron: Do you expect to get paid extra for doing your job? Ahhh, nope.

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: And you probably don't expect anyone other than your boss to say thank you, right? Parenting is a little like that. Moms and Dads expect their children to be thankful, but we don't expect other people to thank us for taking care of our own kids—that's our responsibility. Stepparents are a little different. Because they are giving out of the overflow of their heart, it's nice when others notice what they're doing for their stepkids. And I think we should.

September 16 is National Stepfamily Day. This is a good opportunity for all of us to honor stepparents and call attention to the love that's shared in blended family homes. For FamilyLife Blended, I'm Ron Deal.
