Your Father's Instruction (Proverbs 1)

Air Date: January 30, 2019

Ron: In Proverbs, the Bible has some good advice for children: listen to your father's instruction and do not forsake your mother's teaching. But what about a stepfather or a stepmother's instruction? Do you have to listen to that, too?

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: Well, of course you do, right. I mean God expects everyone to obey the authorities in their life. Stepparents are another authority. But sometimes kids have a hard time receiving their instruction. The solution to this dilemma has two sides to it.

Stepparents make sure your stepchildren know how much you care before you expect them to care how much you know. And stepchildren receive your stepparent just like you would a teacher or a coach. They offer instruction to bless your life and your stepparent will, too. For FamilyLife Blended I'm Ron Deal.
