Minor Issues, Major Implications

Air Date: March 4, 2019

Ron: In marriage, things can escalate quickly.

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: I have a habit of keeping things I don't need; this annoys my wife. Once she found another receipt she didn't think necessary and I snipped. "I saw that. You rolled your eyes at me." And with a smile, she pointed and said, "I rolled one. This one." Well, first of all you should know that no spouses were harmed in the making of this program.

Now, what can we learn from this? Minor issues can escalate quickly and have major implications. That, even the smallest nonverbal behavior communicates a lot so be careful. And that an honest, but humorous confession covers a multitude of sins. For FamilyLife Blended I'm Ron Deal.
