A Forever Family

Air Date: March 11, 2019

Ron: No, Ron, I don't think a forever family is possible. At least not for me.

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: Julie didn't think forever families were possible. You know, when a husband and wife stay together. In part, because she'd never seen one. In her immediate family there had been 12 divorces including her parents. Now engaged, she said, "I hope I've found the right person so I don't get divorced."

You know, I'm having more and more conversations with younger adults like this. That kind of anxiety about marriage is common today but understandable. But hope comes with guidance. After discovering Bible-based resources Julie said this, "I can see it now. God's plan for relationships makes all the difference." Yes, it does. For FamilyLife Blended I'm Ron Deal.
