Family: Permission to Speak Truth

Air Date: April 5, 2019

Ron: In your family, can you speak truth?

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: You know, a good friend will tell you the truth. The truth about your clothes, the impression you're giving off—you know, the truth about you. Sometimes families are afraid to speak truth. But other than God these people know you better than anyone. And they are supposed to be your best friends helping you become more like Christ. Who better to speak truth?

What about this: Give them permission to gently point out sin in your life. Not in a critical or condemning way, but compassionately because they love you. Yeah, sure it can be awkward, but when done softly for your good, why would you turn it down? So, does your family have your permission to speak truth? For FamilyLife Blended, I'm Ron Deal.
