When Parents Change the Rules

Air Date: April 9, 2019

Ron: Hey kids, isn't it annoying when parents change the rules!

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: You thought you knew what was expected of you and then wham, you don't. Now kids, here's what's really annoying: they get to do this. They are the parent. And it happens all the time. They read a good book or they go to a parenting class and they change their expectations.

Then there are the parent-stepparent changes. For years you could be sarcastic with your brothers and then a stepparent enters the scene and they take it personally when you're sarcastic with your stepbrother, so now, you can't be sarcastic. I know, it's a pain. And it would help if they wouldn't take things quite so personally, but maybe you're just going to have to stop being sarcastic. For FamilyLife Blended, I'm Ron Deal.
