Step-Money: Pots of Money

Air Date: April 15, 2019

---

Ron: How many pots of money do you have?

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: Yeah, I know—you don't have any pots of money lying around the house. But you do have a bank account and a budget. Couples in first marriages generally have one pot of money. They deposit their income and pay all their bills out of that joint account and they co-own their assets.

But couples in stepfamilies have a variety of money systems. They might have one joint account. Or they might have two that represents the assets and obligations of each partner. Other couples have three pots: a his, hers, and ours. Well, here is the good news. It doesn't really matter how much pots of money you have but what does matter is that you agree to the system and that you base it on God's values about spending, saving, and providing for your kids. For FamilyLife Blended I'm Ron Deal.
