Veteran's Day—Thank You

Air Date: November 11, 2019

Ron: Thank you for your service.

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: It wasn't too many years ago that I was walking through an airport and a man near me walked up to two military servicemen and said, "Thank you for your service." He didn't know either of them; he just wanted to say thank you. It got me thinking. You know, it's pretty easy for me to be disconnected from the sacrifices our military personnel make to keep us safe.

Yeah, movies remind me of the cost of war, and stories around Veteran's Day always put a face on the sacrifices made, but, I must admit, it's easy for me to forget. Which is why I now make it a practice to walk up to complete strangers—military personnel I don't know—and say, "Thank you." Perhaps you'll join me. For FamilyLife Blended I'm Ron Deal.
