Talking Blended

Air Date: November 18, 2019

Ron: So, what do you call a stepfamily?

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: There's a lot of confusion about what term to use for the stepfamily these days. Ah, see there, I used one. "But, Ron, we call our family a blended family because we're trying to blend everyone together." Yeah, that works. But, then, for some a blended family is a bi-racial family. Huh.

Well, others call themselves a remarried family, or a combined family, or an instant family (you mean like coffee)? Or a reconstituted family (that just sounds like orange juice to me). Or since there are two houses what about a binuclear family? "Stand back, she's going to blow." There's a lot of terms, but no matter which you choose, just remember to act like a family. For FamilyLife Blended, I'm Ron Deal.
