Daddy-Daughter Dance

Air Date: November 19, 2019

Ron: Well, he didn't get to walk his daughter down the aisle, but he did get the daddy-daughter dance.

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: After nearly 20 years of being a stepdad a friend of mine could see that his stepdaughter was struggling to decide who should walk her down the aisle at her wedding. Her dad, who had been in and out of her life, or her stepdad, who had been there all along. My friend solved the problem with a big sacrifice. He let her know that he would be okay with her father walking her down the aisle.

That brought a light to her eyes and a smile to her face. And then she insisted: "But nobody's going to take away our dance at the reception." Oh yeah, he enjoyed that daddy-daughter dance. He loved every minute of it! For FamilyLife Blended, I'm Ron Deal.
