Stepparent: Do's and Don'ts 2

Air Date: December 11, 2019

Ron: Do you have a plan for your work day or future goals? How about a parenting plan?

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: Having a plan really is vital especially for stepparents. So, here's some more stepparent do's and don'ts. Do make sure the biological parent has your back. Without that your authority is going to fall flat real quick. And when you have a disagreement, and you will, you have to settle it in private. Don't unilaterally change rules. Get together with the biological parent and make the changes together.

And, finally do communicate with the biological parent a lot. In fact, over communicate and if you're uncertain about something, talk about it together before giving the kids an answer. For FamilyLife Blended, I'm Ron Deal.
