Don't Cut Them Out

Air Date: January 14, 2020

Ron: She's showing her true colors, Ron, and they're not very pretty.

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: It's always a tragedy when someone cuts a child off from their parent. Sharon posted that she and her sister, both adults, were happy for their father when he remarried a few years after their mother died. Their dad's new wife seemed approachable and kind but eventually she showed her true colors. She manipulated their dad's time, systematically cutting him out of their lives.

That's just wrong. And it's a shallow person that confiscates someone's love and divides a family like that. If God is your source, you'll always have enough love for everyone and they'll have enough for you. But if you're possessive, you might be the one who gets cut out. For FamilyLife Blended I'm Ron Deal.
