Standing Up for Kids

Air Date: January 30, 2020

Ron: Are you standing up...for the kid right next to you?

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: You know it's funny. We'll get on airplanes and fly around the world to stand up for children suffering from war or poverty, but we'll stand back and do nothing when it's a kid across the street. Rarely, for example, will Christians speak up for someone else's child caught in ongoing battles between their homes.

I get it; we don't want to "get into their business" or "step in where we don't belong," but I believe we should do something. Respectfully, but assertively ask a parent who is bad-mouthing the other home and putting their child in the middle as a spy to stop. If it's about a child, it's not just "their business," it's ours. For FamilyLife Blended I'm Ron Deal.
