Less Than One-Half of One Percent

Air Date: February 4, 2020

Ron: Can you turn to your church for help?

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: We asked blended families what their biggest challenge is. The answers were all over the place. Grief and sadness. Jealousy. Parenting disunity. Adult stepchild relationships. Conflict with former spouses. Bonding issues. Stepparent role confusion. Money conflicts. Hurt children. Not feeling like a family. On and on they went.

Now here's the takeaway: Despite having resources to address every one of these issues and offering training to the local church, we estimate that only one-half of one percent of churches nationwide do anything to help blended families. Forty percent of families today are unsupported by the Christian community. What about your church? For FamilyLife Blended I'm Ron Deal.
