Preparing for Deployment

Air Date: February 7, 2020

Ron: How do you prepare your family for military deployment?

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: Deployment is tough on marriages and families. If leaving your family for six months to a year wasn't hard enough, deployment for stepfamilies is even more difficult. Stepparents may be left caring for children without the legal authority to do so; custody arrangements may be challenged while a parent is deployed and unable to defend themselves, and new stepparents can be left not knowing how to parent children according to the biological parent's wishes.

So, how do you prepare? Our friends at The Military Ready Stepfamily, offer training for military stepfamilies, seminars, and training for chaplains. You're defending us. And we're defending you. For FamilyLife Blended I'm Ron Deal.
