Step-Money: Create a Financial Plan

Air Date: March 11, 2020

Ron: When it comes to stepfamilies, there's not a one-size-fits-all estate plan.

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: Blended families have some unique financial situations. Did you know that long after a divorce an ex-spouse will almost always be entitled to a portion of your retirement? Get this: if you have kids and get married, then pass away. If your widow remarries and then dies, did you know that some of your assets could end up going to their surviving spouse and not your children?

Here's the point: don't leave your financial matters unattended. You need to come together with your spouse and make a plan. Pray about it, meet with an attorney, and put it down on paper. Every estate plan will be different. You just need yours. For FamilyLife Blended, I'm Ron Deal.
