What Are You Chasing? (Proverbs 15)

Air Date: April 16, 2020

Ron: Have you ever met a rich person who was miserable?

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: Man, I have. It's a sad day when the rich realize that money doesn't buy happiness. Okay, just now I know you were thinking about someone who has a lot more money than you but the truth is, by the world's standards you and I are rich. But are we content?

Proverbs 15 speaks to this. It's better to have a little and trust the Lord than have a lot and live in turmoil. It's better to have a simple meal in a loving home than a feast with hatred served on the side. What's the lesson? Rather than chasing material things, seek first the kingdom of God and be rich in love. This is family wealth. For FamilyLife Blended, I'm Ron Deal.
