Gossip Divides (Proverbs 16:28)

Air Date: May 29, 2020

Ron: An axe can split a block of wood and a whisper can divide a relationship.

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: What? An axe uses force to splinter; a whisper doesn't have any force. Oh, yes it does. Proverbs 16 tells us that a gossip causes close friends to distrust each other just by whispering to one about the other. Gossip has the power to bully a girl at school or break up business partners and in blended families, insiders who gossip about the outsiders can easily keep a family divided forever.

Listen, don't talk about people. Talk to them. Bring together, don't split apart. For FamilyLife Blended, I'm Ron Deal.
