Stepgrandchildren (Proverbs 17)

Air date: September 9, 2020

Ron: Do you see that smile on that older person's face? They must be a grandparent.

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: It's true, isn't it? Just ask someone about their grandkids and their face lights up, they show you pictures, and they get giddy all of a sudden. No wonder Proverbs 17:6 says that grandchildren are the crown, or should I say the "reason for joy," of the aged.

Now sometimes in blended families grandchildren bring an added blessing: they unite the family. To a grandchild there's no grandparent and stepgrandparent, it's just "grandpa" and "grandma," "granddad" and "Nana." They don't know the family history and don't care. You're just someone they love. Now that will light up a face and a family. For FamilyLife Blended I'm Ron Deal.
