No Famous Last Words

Air Date: February 23, 2021

Ron: Those famous last words can get you in trouble.

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: My wife taught me a great lesson once. She had a job that she wanted to keep despite being caught in a difficult administrative situation. Before leaving the organization, she could have shared some "famous last words" but she didn't. Then things changed and because the administrators witnessed her grace and integrity, they invited her to stay.

Apply this in your work life. Or with a friend, or neighbor, a child or parent, a spouse or even an ex-spouse. When you have choice words for them hold your tongue. Act with integrity. Offer no famous last words. Who knows what can be mended or how God can be glorified. For FamilyLife Blended, I'm Ron Deal.
