Negotiating Romance & Partnership

Air Date: June 21, 2021

Ron: What's a wedding, without a honeymoon!

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: Did you ever notice blended family couples don't get a honeymoon? Yeah, they get a few days together after the wedding, but what they don't get is a lot of time together before the kids come along. Deuteronomy 24 affirms the idea that couples need time, perhaps even an entire year, to bond and establish their home. But stepfamily couples don't get that. Instant family means instant responsibilities. They have to negotiate romance and partnership all at the same time.

Hey, it is what it is. You're going to have to work at this. So, be intentional. It's a little harder to solidify your marriage but you can do this. For FamilyLife Blended, I'm Ron Deal.
