

FamilyLife Blended® Radio Transcript

References to conferences, resources, or other special promotions may be obsolete.

Primary or Secondary?

Air Date: November 4, 2021

Ron: When it comes to insurance, which beneficiary do you want to be—primary or secondary?

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here's Ron Deal.

Ron: Oh, primary, right? That means you are first in line to get benefits. Evelyn wrote to our ministry concerned about her husband's life insurance. He had one policy for his kids and another for her and her children, and that felt odd to her. I suggested that he was wise to arrange for money to be passed on to each—and there are a lot of ways to do that.

“And,” I said, “Don't get caught up in ‘primary’ or ‘secondary’ language. That's really not a measurement of your value to your husband. The question should be is he taking care of you and the kids? The good news,” I told her, “It sounds like he is.” For FamilyLife Blended, I'm Ron Deal.

Announcer: To find out more visit familylifeblended.com.

FamilyLife Blended with Ron Deal is a production of FamilyLife.

We are so happy to provide these transcripts to you. However, there is a cost to produce them for our website. If you've benefited from the broadcast transcripts, would you consider donating today to help defray the costs?

Visit <http://www.familylifeblended.com/donate>.

Copyright © 2021 FamilyLife. All rights reserved.

www.FamilyLife.com