Step in Line

Air date: March 9, 2023

Ron: “Ron, our marriage is great. It would be wonderful if it was just the two of us but it’s not.”

Announcer: For FamilyLife Blended®, here’s Ron Deal.

Ron: Sarah had come to realize an important truth about her family. Parenting dramatically affects a stepfamily marriage. One of the key steps for stepfamilies is step in line. You know, a line dance is when a number of people stand beside each other and do the same steps.

Well, in blended families, all the adults, sometimes across many homes, need to coordinate their parenting as much as they can in order to bring harmony to the parenting process. This helps kids but it also helps couples have a stronger marriage. No, cooperation isn’t easy. But everything gets better when it happens. So, step in line. For FamilyLife Blended I’m Ron Deal.
